Winston-Salem Presbytery went back into its leadership role during March, replacing Concord Presbytery which has held that position since last December. Winston-Salem is now leading Concord by 7¾ cents per member, an it is doubtful if Concord will overcome this advantage in the reports which have been received during the early part of April. The final tabulation of what the Presbyterries and Synod have done will appear in next month's issue of the paper.

The only other change in the standing of the other Presbyteries at the close of March was the shifting of Kings Mountain and Orange Presbyteries. Orange dropped back to fifth place, while Kings Moun- position.

During March, the Presbyteries of Kings Mountain, Concord, Orange and Wilmington contributed more than they did in March, 1934, while the other five, Winston-Salem, Albemarle, Mecklenburg, Granville and Fayetteville, reported smaller sums.

Winston-Salem Presbytery is leader for both years up to date. Albemarle was the second, today it is third; Kings Mountain was third last year, it is fourth this month; Concord was fourth a year ago, it ranks second this year; Mecklenburg was fifth last year, it's sixth today; Granville was in sixth place in March, 1934, but it is seventh now; Orange wa was seventh a year ago, now it is fifth this month; while Wilmington and Fayetteville were respectively in eighth and ninth places la t year, but that standing has been reversed at the close of March.

The whole Synod last month contributed 8.2 cents per member and for the year had contributed 86 5 cents per member.

ONLY 182 CHURCHES NOW BELOW LAST YEAR'S SUM

Thirty Per Cent of Them Will Probably Be Transferred Next Month

Only 182 churches in the Synod of North Carolina had failed, on March 31st., to reach the total which they contributed to the Orphanage during 1933-1934, and at least 30% of these will be transferred to the list of "exceeders" in the May issue of The Messenger, which will carry the final roster of churches which did not measure up to the giving of a year ago.

Last month, 265 churches needed to give $7,734.60 to come up to their last year's total, but the 182 listed today are behind a tota of only $4,362.62, which goes to show that some large amounts were received last month from those churches which were considerably in arrears of the 1933-1934 aggregates.

Of the $4,362.62, eight of the 182 churches are behind a combined sum of $2,253.92, leaving the other $2,108.70 needed from 174 churches; 65 of them lack between $10.00 and $100.00; 34 lack sums between $5.00 and $9.99; 53 lack sums between $1.00 and $4.99, and 22 of them are behind less than $1.00.

Twenty churches in Concord Presbytery lack only $233.06 of coming up to last year's totals, for the smallest sum any Presbytery is behind, while Albemarle Presbytery boasts of only eight churches which have not given as much as last year.

The distribution of the 182 churches, according to Presbyteries, and the total amount the Presbytery is in arrears is as follows:

Winston-Salem	17	$928.74
Granville	13	814.34
Mecklenburg	25	572.57
Wilmington	27	480.40
Fayetteville	31	390.68
Kings Mountain	24	362.56
Albemarle	8	291.02
Orange	17	289.25
Concord	20	233.06
Totals	182	$4,362.62

GRADUATING EXERCISES CONCLUDE ON APRIL 22

Ten Girls and Eight Boys in 1935 Graduating Class.—Three Speakers

The 1935 Commencement exercises at the Presbyterian Orphan' Home will begin Friday night, April 19th., with a pre entation of a program by members of the grammar grades, and will conclude on Monday night, April 22nd, when ten girls and eight boys f nish the high school.

This will bring to conclusion the 44th. year of the institution a Barium Springs.

Speakers for the 1935 commencement are Rev. J. H. Henderlite, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Gastonia, who will deliver the baccalaureate sermon on Sunday morning, April 21st; Rev. J. W. Witherspoon, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Lexington, who will speak to the Young People's groups at the Sunday night service on April 21st, and Rev. J. Ross Lynn, D. D., superintendent of Thornwell Orphanage at Clinton. S. C., who will deliver the commencement address on Monday night, April 22nd.

The senior class play was presented at the Orphanage on Friday night, March 22nd. The play given was "The Call of Youth" with a prologue and three acts. Girls participating were Elsie Brown, Leone East, Maude Inman, Thelma Johnston, Laura Lane McKee, Bonnie McKenzie, Miriam Sanders, Rene Shannon, Iris Spencer and Joy Stone. The boys were Cheek Freeman, Eston Lackey, T. L. O'Kelley, Jr., Sydney Parrish and A. D. Potter.

At the final exercises on Monday night will be the salutatory address by T. L. O'Kelley, Jr., delivery of the seventh grade certificates, the commencement address, the giving out of diplomas, with the acknowledgement by T. L. O'Kelley, Jr., who is president of the class; the presentation of Bibles to the graduates; the awarding of various medals and the valedictory by Miriam Sanders. Among the medals to be awarded will be the ace medal, the Bible medal, one for scholastic work in the high school and grammar school and the music improvement medal. Special music will intersperse all programs.

ALL THREE

Gifts were received last month to enable the Orphanage officials to add 27 more churches to the ever-increasing group which have helped the institution regularly through the channels of the church budget, Sunday School Offering and Auxiliary giving. There are now 109 churches which have done this.

New ones added in March were Fountain and Williamston in Albemarle Presbytery; Concord Iredell in Concord; Cameron, Cypress, Flat Branch, Iona, Pembroke, Sunnyside and Vass in Fayetteville; Varina, in Granville; Lowell, Rutherfordton in Kings Mountain; Paw Creek, Providence and Wadesboro in Meckenburg; Buffalo (L), East Burlington, Eno, Graham and Reidsville in Orange; and Graves Memorial, Hallsville, Rocky Point, Wildwood, Willard and Winter Park in Wilmington. Winston-Salem Presbytery did not add any new ones to her roster in March.

Fayetteville Presbytery has the largest number of churches in this grouping. That Presbytery has 19 churches, followed by Mecklenburg with 18. Other Presbyteries and their number are Orange 16, Concord 15, Wilmington 12, Albemarle 11, Granville 7, Kings Mountain 6, and Winston-Salem 5.

The 109 churches are as follows: Albemarle Presbytery—Ahoskie,

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AGAIN GIVE MORE LAST MONTH

Final Report Next Month Will Be Revealing.—46 in $100 Classification

The Sunday Schools topped their 1934 March giving to the Orphanage, but did so by a narrow margin. However, during the first part of April gifts on the old year have been received, and the final tabulation of this next month is going to be revealing. During March $1,895.08 came to Barium from Sunday School responses, as compared with $1,838.30 for the same month of 1934. That was an increase of only a little over $50.

Throughout 1933-1934, the Sunday Schools contributed a total of $13,466.42, and on March 31st., the sum was $14,331.20. This was $884.78 more than all of the last year put together, and when those old year reports which were received in April are tabulated, the Sunday Schools are going to show an increase of over $2,000.00 in in their giving to Barium during 1934-1935.

Eleven other Sunday School went into the $100.00 classification in March, bringing the number of Sunday Schools which have given as much as $100.00 to 46. The number predicted at the beginning of the year to attain this feat was 50, and it yet remains to be seen if this predic-

NEW SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Three more Sunday Schools are now helping regularly. Williamston in Albemarle Presbytery last month decided to give one Sunday's Offering per month to the Orphanage. Sprunt Memorial in Orange Presbytery has been sending special sums to Barium from time to time, but have now definitely instituted the plan of a monthly giving to Barium. At the close of the year, Cooleemee sent a fine amount to the Orphanage, and it has been learned that they are following the Sunday-per-month plan in the future.

Watch the May issue of The Messenger for the names of other Sunday Schools which have inaugurated during April a regular plan of helping Barium.

tion was correct. At the time of going to press, three others had joined this group, and only one more is necessary to make the estimate come true.

Those going into the $100.00 class last month were Davidson, Kannapolis, Salisbury Second and Thyatira in Concord Presbytery; Warrenton in Granville; Charlotte First and Paw Creek in Mecklenburg; Alamance, Covenant and Spray in Orange; and Mocksville in Winston-Salem Presbytery.

The 46 Sunday Schools and the amounts which they have contributed follow:

NUMBER OF EXCEEDERS GREW LARGER IN MARCH

333 Churches Contributed More in 1934-'35.—Seven Give Same Amounts

Receipts at the Orphanage during the month of March enabled officials here to classify 55 more churches of the Synod of North Carolina in that group which has exceeded the 1933-1934 giving to the Orphanage. Thus, at the close of March 31st., 333 churches were in the classification, while seven others have given the same amounts for both years. This is a grand total of 340 churches which have either equalled or gone beyond their previous year's giving to Barium.

A great number of these 333 churches were in this grouping a year ago, but space in this issue of the Messenger does not permit the listing of these churches just now. However, this will probably be done in the June issue of the paper, for it is rather distinctive to increase the giving to Barium two years in succession. The recording of those churches which have done this, it is believed, will be an inspiration for them to duplicate this performance in 1935-1936.

Watch the May issue of The Barium Messenger for the final list of churches which have "gone over". Books were held open at the Orphanage for part of April to receive the closing gifts of 1934-1935, and this means that many others can be thus classified because of the last-minute sprint in giving.

The seven churches which have given identical amounts for the past two years are the same as appeared in the March issue of The Messenger, and are not included in the following roster of 333 which are ahead of 1933-1934:

Albemarle Presbytery—Ahoskie, Ballard's Mission, Bear Grass, Bethlehem, Calvary, Carraway's Mission, Edenton, Falkland, Farmville, Fountain, Goldsboro, Greenville, Henderlite Memorial, Jason, LaGrange, Macclesfield, Mayo Mission, Morton, Nahalah, New Bern, Pinetops, Poplar Point, Robinson, Rocky Mount First, Rocky Mount Second, Snow Hill, Suggs' Cross Roads, Washington, William and Mary Hart.

Concord—Back Creek, Bayless Memorial, Beattie Memorial, Bethany, Bethpage, Cleveland, Clinchfield, Concord First, Concord Second, Davidson, Elmwood, Fifth Creek, Franklin, Gilwood, Glen Alpine, Harmony, Hickory, Kannapolis, Lenoir, Little Joe's, Marion, Mooresville First, Morganton, McDowell, McKinnon, New Salem, Old Fort, Park Place, Patterson, Poplar Tent, Prospect, Salisbury First, Salisbury Second, Shiloh, Statesville First, Stony Point, Taylorsville, Third Creek, Thyatira, Waldensian.

Fayetteville—Antioch, Barbecue, Bensalem, Berea, Bethesda, Buie's Creek, Cameron, Cameron Hill, Cape Fear, Carthage, Comfort, Culdee, Dundarrach, Dunn, Eagle Springs, Elise, Elrod, Ephesus, Erwin, Fairmont, Flat Branch, Galatia, Gibson, Godwin, Hebron, Highland, Iona, Jackson Springs, Lakeview, Laurinburg, Lumberton, Manly, Maxton, Midway, Mile Branch, Montpelier, McMillan, McPherson, Mt. Carmel, Mt. Pisgah, Mt. Tabor, Pembroke, Philippi, Philadelphus, Raeford, Raven Rock, Rowland, St. Paul, Sandy Grove, Shiloh, Smyrna, Spies, Sunnyside, Vass, Westminster.

Granville—Buffalo Vanguard, Center Ridge, Ernest Myatt, Fellowship, Fuller Memorial, Geneva, Grassy Creek, Gruver Memorial, Henderson, Littleton, Mt. Pleasant, North Vanguard, Nutbush, Oak Hill, Oxford, Progressive, Roanoke Rapids, Roxboro, Selma, Southard's Chapel, St. Andrews, Trinity Avenue, Vanguard Mission, Varina, Warrenton, West Raleigh,

Meet The Graduating Class

THELMA JOHNSTON

Thelma Johnston, the oldest of a family of two from Mecklenburg County, also has leanings toward taking training. She will go into temporary retirement after graduating until she accumulates a little more age. She is not quite 18.

CARSON WOOD

Carson Wood, from Durham, is the last of a family of two. He hopes to go to college. Carson has tried football, basketball, track and wrestling, and incidentally his books.

SYDNEY PARRISH

Sydney Parrish is a slightly red-headed boy from Red Springs. After a brief sojourn in Winston, he plans to enter the University of Oklahoma.

ESTON LACKEY

Eston Lackey, another home town boy, is the son of Mrs. J. D. Lackey of the Orphanage staff, and of the late Mr. J. D. Lackey for a long time foreman of the Orphanage farm.

MIRIAM SANDERS

Miriam Sanders, a youngster from down near Raleigh, is graduating as valedictorian, but O'Kelley was so close behind her that she doesn't know whether to look over her shoulder at him, or just look sideways. She plans to go to Flora Macdonald.

IRIS SPENCER

Iris Spencer is the last of a family of three from Morganton. She plans to go to Flora Macdonald, is a good student and a good girl.

T. L. O'KELLEY, JR.

T. L. O'Kelley, Jr., the son of the school principal, is president of the class.

BONNIE McKENZIE

Bonnie McKenzie, from near Pinehurst, is the second of a family of five.

A. D. POTTER

A. D. Potter, from down near Kinston, next to the last of a family of four, is business manager of the Annual. He hopes to be in college this fall. Inquire for him at Appalachian or State.

IRENE SHANNON

Irene Shannon is next to the last of a family of three. They came to Barium from Gastonia. She is counting on re-uniting with her older sister at Lexington, Va. You may hear her voice some time telling you "the line's busy."

LEONE EAST

Leone East is next to the last of a family of four who came from way up in the northern part of the state. She plans to settle down in Winston-Salem.

LAURA LANE McKEE

Laura Lane McKee, from Clarkton, is the second of a family of five.

ELSIE BROWN

Elsie Brown is next to the last of a family of five from Oxford. She plans to take training at the State Sanatorium.

CHEEK FREEMAN

Cheek Freeman, tallest member of the class, football and basketball captain, hopes to go to college. So far, it is just a hope. He came from Philadelphia Church neighborhood of Mecklenburg County. He is the last of a family of three.

ERNEST CLARK

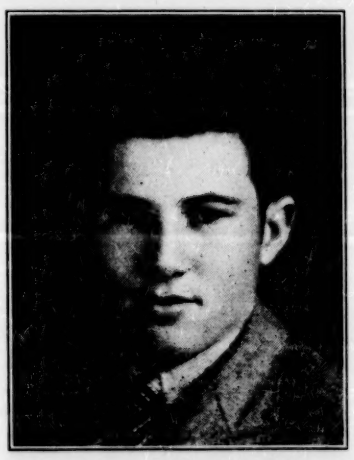
Ernest Clark, the fourth member of a family of five, is from Bolton. He is editor-in-chief of this year's Spotlight, active in the printing office and football. He will go to work at Roanoke, Va., after graduating.

JOY STONE

Joy Stone, the second of a family of three, who hails from Hickory, is undecided whether to go to Mitchell College or to take up work.

MAUDE INMAN

Maude Inman, from down near Waccamaw, is next to the last of a family of three.



ED BURNEY

Ed Burney, from down near Clarkton, is the second most musical member of the class.

Cottage News

WOMAN'S BUILDING

We are oftentimes asked to write news for the paper, and we always think there is nothing about which to write. But, if you were to hear us talk you would thing differently.

Right now we are having our final examinations, and that keeps us busy trying to pick up what we left behind during the regular school session. And, too, school is closing and we have to think about something to wear that would be appropriate for commencement. So it keeps us busy and we will wish after school closes that we had something to do.

We had so much rain during the last month that it makes us feel like different persons to have the sunshine. Everything is looking so pretty.

You know, Seniors are always remembered in so many ways during their last year at Barium. Friends who have clothed them send nice presents that will be useful. And, too, they have been entertained in different ways. They were invited to Mitchell College Saturday night, April 13, and they enjoyed the dinner very much. They appreciate all these things.

We will miss the Senior girls when they are gone. We think that they are a nice bunch of girls and have such a splendid spirit. They have been so willing to work in any way that they could help in the work. As they go, another class steps up and will take their place, or fill in the vacancies.

We have a new matron, Miss Reid from Statesvile, who will take Mrs. Privette's place at Alexander Cottage. We hope she will enjoy the work and stay with us a long time.

The day we are writing this is a busy day in the kitchen. Today is the time for the monthly birthday table, and all of the seniors will be special guests. There will be about 50 at the birthday table. We know they will enjoy it, and you would, too, if you were invited.

The teachers will soon be leaving for their homes. We will miss them during the summer months.

Mrs. Grier's mother spent several days with her in April.

Miss Andrews spent last weekend with her brother.

INFIRMARY

We have sent out our last chicken pox and mumps cases, and are hoping that there will be no more this summer when vacation time is so near.

Miss Paterson spent a week with us but was able to go back to work the first of the week. She was a very good patient, and we were glad that if she had to be sick, we could take care of her.

We thought we would be glad to see the closing day at school, but we feel now that it would be better not to close so soon.

The new well is coming along fine. We all went down to see the water flowing out of it. Mr. Grier had the first drink from it and then we all took a drink of it.

The flowers are blooming in the garden, and every bush is doing its best to have more flowers on it than the one beside it.

Miss Lackey spent the weekend with her aunt in the country last week.

BABY COTTAGE

It is time again for news, and it seems only yesterday that they wanted us to write some. Well, time certainly does fly nowadays.

We have had quite a few visitors lately. Hannah Price's mother brought with her two pretty pictures for our playrooms.

Murphy and John, Mama Girt's sons, and friends from Belmont were here.

The father, brother and sisters of Cathleen and Mildred Monroe came to see them.

Mattie Pearl's mother came and brought her a large red ball, with which we are playing and enjoying very much.

Mrs. Coffey, mother of the twins, also came and brought us all a bunny rabbit.

Margaret Moore, one of our larger girls, had a visit from her sister, Kathleen. She brought all of us some candy bunnies and some chocolate candy.

Mama Girt and the big girls took us to the spring on a picnic. This was our first picnic and we enjoyed it a great deal. The only thing we didn't like about it was that is was too cold to pull off our shoes and wade in the brook.

Mr. Sams invited us all to see "David Copperfield". We thank him very much.

Whenever Mama goes to town in the mornings she usually takes us with her. We have been several times lately.

We were entertained one Sunday afternoon by the Kannapolis band. We hope they come back again soon.

When we write you next month school will be over!

SYNOD COTTAGE

Hello Folks,

It won't be long until school is out, and will we be glad? We can hardly wait 'til it is time to go in swimming.

In our band we have twenty-one boys, and we wear little red hats, and red and white capes. Our caps are made out of oatmeal bottoms and red paper. We had our pictures taken one day last week. The band is going to play at Commencement.

We are hoping the weather will stay warm now so we can take off our shoes; we can run so much faster when we are barefooted.

Your friends,
Pleas Norman,
Standish McKenzie

LEE'S COTTAGE

Spring has come again and we are glad to see it although it will mean a lot of hard work.

We have already started planting Irish potatoes, and have made most of our sweet potato and tomato beds.

School will soon be out and we will all be glad to get out, for we are getting restless waiting for our vacations.

The apple and peach trees are in bloom. We hope to have lots of fruit this year.

We are looking forward to vacation time when we can see some of our old friends.

We were invited to the picture show to see "David Copperfield" which we all enjoyed very much.

The swimming pool will soon be open for it is getting to be pretty warm up here.

Joe Ben Gibbs, one of our boys, had a nice visit from his mother last Saturday and we know he enjoyed seeing her.

—P. O. H.—

Rider: Here, hold my horse a couple of minutes, will you?

Statesman: Sir, you don't realize who I am. I'm a member of the Senate of the United States of America.

Rider: Oh, that's all right, it don't take brains to hold a horse, and you look fairly honest.
